

Please retain the current ownership rules. We need to keep the ability to have a variety of views available to the US public.

If we allow a few companies to own a large percentage of the airwaves we will not be able to listen to a variety of view points. The large companies will choke off the smaller companies.

Thank You